FRATERNAL SOCIETIES MEET AT CAPELS CHURCH

Light of Havaco lodge No. 120 of Capels and the Lily of the Valley court No. 81 celebrated their annual Thanksgiving service July 23rd, in the Royal Baptist church at Capels, W. Va., at 1:30 P. M., with Rev. W. M. Davis as pastor. Mrs. Lula Duncan gave the welcome address as was responded to by Rev. Bratcher of Northfork. A talk on Pythianism was given by W. M. Campbell, a grand lodge official of Wilcoe.

Mrs. Norine Hickmon, Grand District Deputy for the Courts gave a talk on "Faithfulness." Hon. T. Gillis Nutter, Grand Chancellor of the K. of P.'s was the speaker of the evening. He gave a wonderful address on "Our Duty to Our Church and Our Fraternal Organizations." This address was inspiring and enjoyed by all who heard him.

Music for the occasion was furnished by male and female quartetts.

The sermon was preached by Rev. J. D. Simpson of Coalwood whose theme was "Friendship." This was interestingly and very ably done.

After the program the Calanthe Sisters served dinner to all present. This did not lack interest besides being cooked well it was free. This was one of the largest meetings the Pythians and Courts have had for some time. People were in attendance from Charleston, Northfork, Keystone, Wilcoe, Havaco, Coalwood, and Gary. Mr. Nutter and Mrs. Lola Mack, Supreme Chancellor and Grand Chancellor of Pythians and Courts of Calanthe, are to be commended in the wholesome and substantial way in which they have and are handling these organizations.

Unusual Race of Wild Geese. An unusual race of wild geese is said to exist in British Columbia and south-eastern Alaska. They are known locally as white-cheeked geese and resemble the well-known Canada goose in many respects, being approximately the same size but much darker in plumage. They also differ from other goose species in that they are reluctant to migrate south in the fall and many remain to spend their entire life in the northern range.
